T.T. and W.F. Chao Senior Center

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

August 23, 2019

Horizon recently completed the ground up construction of the new T.T. and W.F. Chao Senior Center in Houston, Texas. The 22,000 SF facility will bring together the surrounding community for traditional and modern Chinese events. The kitchen features restaurant grade equipment and the expansive auditorium features state-of-the-art audio visual capabilities

The ribbon cutting ceremony was attended by Mayor Sylvester Turner, Councilmember David Robinson, Councilmember Mike Knox, Director of the Center Chi -mei Lin, and representatives from the Houston Housing and Community Development.

Horizon Principal, Al Kashani, along with Laura Thurmond, Samantha Dickerson and Alfonso Martinez were also in attendance.

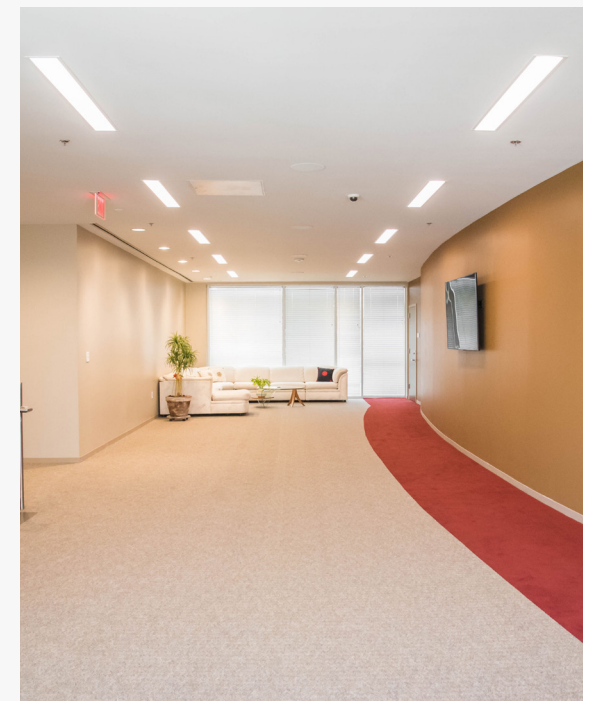

Horizon was awarded the new construction of a 2-story community center of approximately 19,135-SF, and the renovation of an existing pre-engineered metal storage warehouse building of approximately 3,650-SF into a multi-purpose facility; and new parking and landscaping on site. This project is funded in part by the Community Development Block Federal Grants
